ABOUT THE CAMPS

GENERAL INFORMATION

Both Camp PMI and Camp Ross are weeklong residential camps and have tents and dining halls, beautiful views and amazing foil dinners, awesome campfires and staff, fun activities rain or shine, and exciting things for new and returning campers alike!

WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THEM?

Largely terrain. PMI is hilly, whereas Ross has more of a flat, day camp terrain. Both also have slightly different feels. Not sure which one? Pick one and go to the other one the next year!

RECENT UPDATES?

Ross's dining hall (shown below) was renovated beautifully in 2016. And after much work, PMI revealed their gorgeous new chapel in 2016 as well!

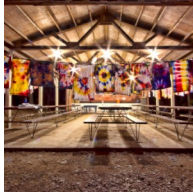

AWESOME ACTIVITIES!

SHOOTING SPORTS

Including archery and BB guns!

HANDICRAFT

Make a craft related to the theme!

AQUATICS

With swimming, boating, Aquanaut, and a giant water trampoline!

SCOUTCRAFT

Fire building, Whittlin' Chip, giant monkey bridge, knot tying, and challenge course!

NATURE

See snakes, turtles, and do adventures like Into the Wild, Into the Woods, and Earth Rocks!

AND MORE!

Each camp also has a theme that changes each summer, campwide games, time for pack hikes, and a stellar program for both first year and second year campers.
